

Hotel review: The Z Hotel, Victoria

Our Digital Editor, Clemmie, visits the wonderfully central Z Hotel in Victoria.

18 January 2016 - 2:34pm

Submitted by: Clemmie Milbank

Share f t g+ p ✉ 🖨

A a -

The fabulously central Z Hotel, Victoria

Located right by Victoria station (ideal for the Gatwick express), this contemporary hotel is the perfect place to stay before catching a honeymoon flight to warmer climes. It's also an ideal location for out-of-towners who want to spend a weekend in London shopping for their dream wedding dress.

Before you go off onto a long-haul flight (or after a busy day sipping fizz at various bridal boutiques) you'll be glad of the huge comfortable beds and the amazing modern facilities (Sky channels - woo hoo!). However, that's not even the best bit... this amazing hotel also offers free cheese and wine between 5-7pm (yes, really!). You simply won't find a better central city stay.

Standard double rooms from £100. thezhotels.com