Boutique hotel chain Z Hotels has opened its fifth London property Z City, in the heart of the City of London.

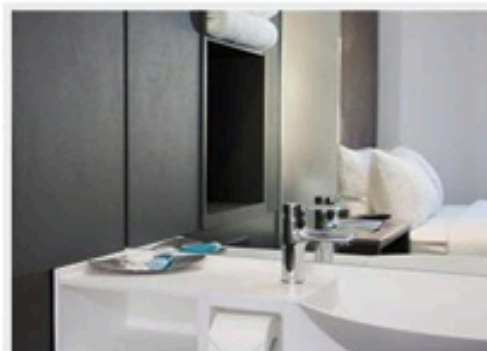

The 109-room hotel, which currently has 50 rooms open with more to be added in the coming weeks, adheres to the character of Z Hotels, offering guests urban luxury at an affordable price, with room rates from £60 per night.

A designer conversion of a former office building, Z City is situated on Fleet Street, neatly nestled between Aldwych and Ludgate Circus, and will offer a range of Z Double, Queen, Accessible and Inside rooms.

The new hotel lays claim to the group's largest café space, with capacity for up to 80 people, making it the perfect location for everything from after-work drinks to larger parties. Arranged over five floors, each bedroom features the latest 48" LED HD TVs with a full selection of Sky Sports and Sky Movies available at no extra cost, power showers, bespoke hand-crafted beds, luxury bed linen and free Wi-Fi. The hotel will also serve the much loved complimentary cheese and wine between 5pm and 7pm each evening in the Z Café.

Ideal location

Directly opposite the Royal Courts of Justice, the hotel boasts a number of cafés, restaurants and bars on its doorstep and is a short walk from the famous Somerset House, Covent Garden Plaza and the West End's abundance of theatres. The property is ideally placed for those guests looking to explore some of London's most lively nightlife as well as those travelling to the capital for business.

Bev King, director of Z Hotels said: "We are hugely excited to have moved into the City and extended our London portfolio to five properties. The City is fantastic for both leisure and business and we're thrilled to be continuing to grow the already successful Z Hotels concept."

Z City is group's seventh property. The brand has expanded rapidly since launching the new hotel concept in 2011 with its flagship hotel in Soho, London. Since then, the portfolio has grown to include Z Victoria, Z Liverpool, Z Piccadilly, Z Glasgow and Z Shoreditch.
